

Los Angeles Air Force Base Academic Recognition Program 2017/2018 School Year

OBJECTIVE: To recognize children of DoD civilians, active duty, retired and veteran military personnel in grades K-12 for their outstanding scholastic achievements.

ELIGIBILITY: Children of DoD civilians, military (all branches, including activated Guard and Reserve) in grades K-12 who are affiliated with LA Air Force Base, and meet the specified requirements as listed below are eligible to apply. Students may enter in one or more categories each term.

CATEGORIES:

Outstanding Grade Point Average: For students with a 3.0 GPA or above during the term. The parent/student must submit a completed Academic Recognition Program Application, report card showing the student's grades for the application term. Grade point average (GPA) will be calculated as a means average of the grades earned; if there are multiple sections of grades, only the section titled "Academic Subjects" will be considered. Each grade will receive the following point allocation: A=4, B=3, C=2, D=1, F=0; if number grades are used rather than letter grades, they will be averaged at face value. In the case of Advanced Placement classes, a weighted GPA will be considered using the following point scale: A=5, B=4, C=3, D=2, F=1. AWARD: Students with GPAs of 3.0 and above will receive a Certificate of Achievement.

Citizenship Award: For students demonstrating outstanding character or citizenship traits (Anti Bullying Award, Citizenship Award, Principal/ Dean Charter Award, etc.) The parent/student must submit proof of citizenship award.

Perfect Attendance: For students demonstrating perfect attendance. The parent/student must submit proof of perfect attendance.

APPLICATION TERMS: Applications along with proof of GPA, citizenship or perfect attendance will be accepted by email to the School Liaison Officer at 61fss.slo@us.af.mil at Fort MacArthur, Youth Center, or Los Angeles Air Force Base, Airman & Family Readiness Center Bldg 272, room C1-209. Incomplete or late applications will not be considered. For additional information please contact The School Liaison Officer at (310) 653-8631.
